

PRESS RELEASE.....FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

To The Point

A selection of works on paper from the 19th century to the present.

March 16 through April 22, 2017

The Edward Thorp Gallery is pleased to present a group exhibit To The Point, encompassing approximately 40 works on paper including drawings, prints, photographs and constructions. An eclectic array of images has been selected for the immediacy of their message and the variety of their expressive force.

As a readily available material for the artist, paper facilitates the desire to make a statement both quickly and directly. This exhibit will encompass differing artistic motivations ranging from the personal to the political. Topics and media will include, Conceptual art centered on the photographic image, Neo Dada collage, mail art, masks, drawings turned into three dimensions, protest placards, U.S. Government-produced images and 19th c. self-taught works.

Artists to be included; John Baldessari, Joseph Cornell, Sandra De La Horra, Philip Guston, Ray Johnson, William Kentridge, Richard Linder, Bruce Nauman, Claes Oldenburg, Raymond Pettibon, Man Ray, James Rosenquist, Ed Ruscha, Saul Steinberg, Abraham Walkowitz, among others.

Gallery hours 11am to 6pm, Tuesday through Saturday. email: edwardthorpgallery@gmail.com.
